

NEW FAMILY PARTNERSHIP FOUNDATION TRAINING 8 WEEKS - ONLINE VIA ZOOM

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW:

Come and join this exciting opportunity to participate in the updated FPM foundation training online over 8 half days. The FPM foundation training has been designed to provide foundation training on the Family Partnership Model - an evidence based, advanced communication course facilitating genuine and effective engagement with families. This model provides a framework for developing a consistent approach to working with families, identifying strengths and empowering families to facilitate change. This internationally recognised course is interactive, utilising explorative discussion and delivered within a shared, experiential ONLINE learning environment over 8 weeks.

Participants are actively encouraged to bring clinical and personal reflections about their observations and clinical experiences as well undertake the home tasks which consists of some readings from the FPM Reflective Practice Handbook and short reflective practice exercises. The 8 half days of FPM foundation training was introduced 2 years ago in the UK and is now being introduced in Australia.

Expected Outcome: By the end of the training participants will

- Demonstrate the basic knowledge and skills of working in Family Partnership Model
- Gain more confidence in understanding what facilitates engagement with families who have multilayered needs.
- Have the opportunity to participate in an experiential learning environment that facilitates reflection and critical thinking.

Preparation for this FPM Foundation training for participants to attend to prior to and during training.

- Have access to one computer per person Ensure you have access to Zoom app on your laptop or PC Ensure you have a
- working camera on the laptop or PC you are using for this training. Have your Family Partnership Model – Reflective
- Practice Handbook available and easy to access throughout the training. Ensure the room and seating you are doing the
- training in has privacy, that there is only one person per computer screen,
- comfortable back support and seating.
- Consider bringing water, snacks, tissues, pen & paper for notes if these things are useful for you.
- Write down at least three clinical case examples or personal examples that you are willing to share during the training to offer as a gift for the other participants can practice their skills and qualities and techniques with and receive your honest feedback.

The case examples are something that has been resolved, not a current serious problem. But perhaps a situation with a family or friend that you found a bit challenging or created a small dilemma for you, but you have since processed and accepted the situation but it may be beneficial to what was helpful or perhaps could be changed for better outcomes in the interaction or situation.

Once registered for this training, participants will receive the course outline.
